Judge Bugenhagen is running for Wisconsin Court of Appeals District II. The Court of Appeals District II is a large area and consists of Calumet, Fond du Lac, Green Lake, Kenosha, Manitowoc, Ozaukee, Racine, Sheboygan, Walworth, Washington, Waukesha, and Winnebago counties. The seat is currently held by Lisa Neubauer. Last year, Lisa ran a very negative campaign for Supreme Court where she attacked Justice Brian Hagedorn personally for his faith and his desire to uphold the Constitution. While Lisa claims to be fair and independent, she has a liberal judicial activist philosophy and a long history of supporting liberal causes and candidates. Just how important is this race? In Wisconsin, the Court of Appeals is made up of just 16 judges. In less than one year, Governor Evers has appointed four new judges to the Court of Appeals. Add in a new judge who ran unopposed in the liberal district containing Dane County and the result is in less than one year, over one quarter of the Wisconsin Court of Appeals has been selected by the Left.
